This document is only a summary of the main cover and exclusions and isn't personalised to you. We'll give you complete pre-contractual and contractual information about your policy, including specific policy details, as you go through the application to buy, and in other documents.

What is this type of insurance?

This product has been designed for people wanting to make sure that damage to their van is covered if there's a fire or theft only. You're also covered for claims made against you by other people for injury or damage to their property.

What is insured?

- ✓ Claims from other people for injury, or damage to their vehicle or property
- ✓ If your van is stolen or damaged by fire, up to your van's market value
- ✓ Permanently fitted in-vehicle entertainment and sat-navigation equipment is covered up to £1,000, but if it's factory fitted, there's no limit

Optional covers (available at an additional cost)

- Motor Legal Expenses - if you have an accident involving your van where you aren't to blame, this picks up the costs of bringing a claim against the person responsible, where we agree there's a better than 50% chance of your claim succeeding
- No Claim Discount Protection – depending on you meeting certain conditions, your No Claim Discount won't be affected by one claim made during the policy year, or by two claims happening in the previous three years of insurance. Your discount is protected but your premium could still increase following an accident or claim
- Breakdown – in partnership with Green Flag, we offer five levels of breakdown cover to give you 24- hour assistance, plus unlimited callouts to breakdowns (excluding repeated callouts for the same problem)

What is not insured?

- ✗ Loss or damage caused by general wear and tear or reduction in the value of your van
- ✗ Breakdown (unless you've added optional breakdown cover to your policy)
- ✗ Theft of your van if it's left unlocked, left with the keys/key fob in or on your van, left with the engine running or left with a window or roof open
- ✗ If your van's being used by someone who's not insured on your policy, or by someone who's disqualified from driving
- ✗ If your van's being used for anything other than what's shown in your policy documents
- ✗ Damage to your van if it's deliberately damaged by anyone insured on your policy

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! We won't pay a claim if your van's stolen and any tracking device that we asked you to fit hasn't been set or isn't in full working order
- ! An excess may be payable and amounts can differ by claim type and who's driving. The excess payable could include a voluntary excess you chose
- ! Damage to property you don't own and aren't responsible for is covered up to £5 million, except when your van is being used on railway property or for carrying hazardous goods. In these cases, the limit is £1 million

Where am I covered?

✓ You're covered in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland (except for optional breakdown cover), the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.
